Amendment to Assumed Name

Dear Corporate Officer:

RE: Assumed Name Amendment – Address/Nameholder Changes

Currently your Assumed Name Status MAY not be reflecting the proper Address or is different from the Corporate entity Nameholder's address. Your Nameholder may not reflect the corporate entity that holds this name. One or more of these changes may need attention.

Please find attached a new form for filing an Assumed Name Amendment.

Please complete the easy to follow instructions highlighted below:

- 1) Complete the enclosed Assumed Name Form. If the information is correct, one name holder, or agent must sign and date the form.
- 2) Write a check made payable to Paragon Document Research, Inc. for $55.00. This covers State fees, processing fees and a confirmation copy for your records.
- 3) Return the signed and dated original forms and a $55.00 check in the enclosed envelope.
- 4) We will forward a proof of filing confirmation to you when the new Assumed Name Amendment has been reflected to your records and has been accepted. The Amended Certificate of Assumed Name then must be published in the legal notices of a qualified legal newspaper for two consecutive issues, in the county in which the business has its principal or registered office. The newspaper will then send back to you an affidavit of publication. The affidavit does not need to be sent to our office. Failure to publish any Amendment changes may render the State filings invalid. This is a service Paragon can handle for your company. You can let us know when we contact you regarding your filed entity. We use the most cost effective legal newspaper in your county.

Note: The penalty for doing business without filing this form is a $250.00 fee payable to any opposing party in any legal contest.

Thank you for your prompt return of your documentation for expedient filing with the Secretary of State's Office. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate in contacting us at 612-767-6844.

Sincerely,

Beth Johnson, Analyst

INSTRUCTIONS

This form is intended merely as a guide for filing and is not intended to cover all situations. Retain the original signed copy of this document for your records and submit a legible photocopy for filing with the Office of the Secretary of State.

If any of the information on the most recently filed Certificate or Amended Certificate of Assumed Name changes, you must file this Amended Certificate within 60 days and publish after filing for two consecutive issues in the legal notices section of a qualified legal newspaper in the county where the principal place of business is located. The newspaper will return an affidavit of publication. A copy of the published notice should be kept by the assumed name holder with the Certificate of Assumed Name. Failure to publish may render the Certificate of Amended Assumed Name Invalid.

1. List the exact business name (new name if changing). Only one business name may be filed per form. Assumed names that duplicate corporate, limited partnership, limited liability partnership, limited liability company names or trademarks already on file cannot be accepted for filing. Note: You may only use corporate or other business entity designations if the business owner is a corporation or other business entity already entitled to use that designation.
2. Provide a complete street address or rural route and rural route box number of the principal place of business. A Minnesota address is preferable whenever available, but an out of state address is acceptable. A post office box cannot be accepted as the address of the principal place of business.
3. List name and complete street address of all persons conducting business under the assumed name. If the business owner is a business organization such as a corporation, limited liability company, or limited partnership doing business under an assumed name, the legal name and registered office address is required.
4. List the original Certificate of Assumed Name number, the date on which the original was filed and, if you are changing the name in item 1, the original name.
5. A signature of one nameholder listed in #3 or an Authorized Agent (The signing party must indicate on the document that they are acting as the agent of the person(s) whose signature would be required and that they have been authorized to sign on behalf of that person(s).) is required. Include the date, printed name of the person signing, and the title of the signer.

Email Address for Official Notices. This email address may be used to send annual renewal reminders and other important notices that may require action or response. Check the box if you wish to have your email address excluded from requests for bulk data, to the extent allowed by Minnesota law.

List a name and daytime telephone number of a person who can be contacted about this form.
